Setting the Standard in Court Design; Superior Building Quality

- Reilly Green Mountain is responsible for virtually all innovations in the sport. We invented the aluminum court which revolutionized the sport. Additionally, the company invented an innovative traction surface for all weather play, spring-loaded shock-absorbing screen systems, and swinging snowboards. All of these improvements enabled platform tennis to be played year round, even in the coldest of climates
- Our aluminum court is a proprietary design incorporating two patents.
- We offer the most comprehensive warranty.
- Our welds are warranted for a full three years.
- Our new aggregate surface is unconditionally warranted on a pro-rated basis for three years for adhesion.
